To The Office of the U. S. Attorney General;

During this public comment period I wish to voice my opinion on the MICROSOFT suit.

The conditions of the present and concluding decision on the Microsoft case are fair and reasonable, so the Government's review should end swiftly. The court should proceed forthwith to agree that the terms are in the public interest.

Had the suit been reasonably and rapidly negotiated to begin with, the nation's economy would have been untold billions of dollars better off in 2000 and 2001. For the welfare of the U. S. we sorely need no further interference in private enterprise in this case.

Sincerely yours, Richard N. Whittier
